GARY RAY BUGARCIC
The East Village of the Eighties in 3-D

August 20-26, 2003, noon to 7pm
Opening reception Tuesday, August 19, 7-9pm

An exhibition of Lenticular 3-D photographs by GARY RAY BUGARCIC

Produced in conjunction with the HOWL! Festival and the Federation of East Village Artists

A photo exhibition of people and places that made New York's East Village of the Eighties one of the most artistically vibrant spots in the world. Some of the sites included are Thomkins Square Park, Cafe Orlin, Life Cafe, nitespots; 8BC, Limbo Lounge, Darinka, Max Fish, CBGB's with shots of Rockets Red Glare, Karen Finlay, Lady Bunny, Ethyl Eckelberger and many others.

Join us after the opening @ 10 pm for a
Stereo Slide Show of the Eighties East Village.
@ Sin-e 150 Attorney St. (between Houston & Stanton)
Hosted & curated by Gary Ray Bugarcic
Stereo 3-D slides by Larry Seven, Fabio Roberti, & M.Henry Jones.

admission: $ 7.00 * 3-D glasses will be provided.

A three dimensional stereo slide show focusing on the curious nightlife of the Eighties, depicting a club and performance scene long forgotten (Club 57, Save The Robots, Darinka and more). Also included are extraordinary slides of gentrification in action when the gas station gallery on Ave B was torn down and a new building was erected. This whole process is documented through the photographer's window as his view of Ave. B is lost forever.

PARTICIPANT INC is located at 95 Rivington Street, between Ludlow and Orchard Streets in the Lower East Side.
